When you're work-ing in the fac - tory, girls, and ply - ing all your trades, From There is noth-ing that you can - not do, A - mer - i - ca's own girl, From black-ing boots to run - ning cars, and dig - ging with your spades; But mak - ing homes to vot - ing now, you're al - ways in the whirl, If tho' you're do - ing all you can, and mak - ing good each day — There's am - mu - ni - tion is the thing the world must have to - day, Make yet a work you best can do that seems to i - dle lay. Make Cu - pid darts, my dear - ie, for you'll need them all some day. Make

REFRAIN Waltz time

Cu - pid darts, my dear-ie, in - stead of shells and guns To hit the hearts of Sam - mies Who fought and beat the Huns; No mat - ter if the trade is dull, They're com - ing back, these sons, Make Cu - pid darts, my dear - ie, in - stead of shells and guns.

Lend a Hand to Uncle Sam.
